Lord, open _____'s eyes to a deeper understanding of the hope of Your calling, the riches of Your glory and the surpassing greatness of Your power for those who believe. Ephesians 2:18-19

God, Your Word promises that when we know the truth, the truth will set us free. Please reveal Your Word to _____ in mighty and awesome ways so that she might be free in You. Grace her to teach Your truth to her children so that their family might pass on a legacy of freedom in Christ. John 8:32

Lord, I thank You that You promise to continue and complete that work You started in _____. Please open her eyes right now to see Your hand at work in her life through all her circumstances so that she would be encouraged. Philippians 1:6

Lord, please be near to _____ in a way that she can feel you in her midst. Quiet her heart with Your love, let her know You delight in her and let her hear Your song of love over her. Zephaniah 3:17

Father, give _____ a full picture of how You see her. Cause her to know and believe that she is a crown of beauty in Your hands and that she will no longer be defined by past failures, losses or pain, but You will give her a new name and call her, "My Delight is in _____." Let her sense your rejoicing over her. Isaiah 62:3-5

Father, training children in Your discipline and instruction is a big task. Moms get weary of repeating instructions, their gentleness gets tired, and their patience worn. When _____ is worn out from disciplining her children, give her the grace to do it in accordance with Your design and with diligence (Proverbs 13:24). Give her an extra dose of patience today so necessary correction would be done with consistency and kindness.

Teach _____ to rejoice always. Put a gentle spirit in her for her family to see so that they might be drawn to You through her. Teach _____ to be anxious for nothing, but in everything give her concerns to You. Philippians 4:6

Thank You Lord that You supply all our needs according to Your riches in glory in Christ Jesus. Please fill _____'s need for _____. Help her rely on You to fill her as she pours into her family. Philippians 4:19

Father, inspire _____ in her mothering so that she might make use of every moment to talk about You in everyday life to her children. Grace her to be a beautiful witness of Your love and truth in her family. Deuteronomy 6:7
