Spiritual Significance and the Christmas Tree

- The evergreen is a depiction of our ever-growing relationship with Christ
- The red colored decorations remind us of the blood Christ came to shed to pay the price for our sins
- The gold and silver decorations remind us of the costly sacrifice He gave and how we are now called to live lives of costly sacrifice as well
- The white decorations remind us of the pure life Jesus lived for us
- The lights remind us that Christ is the Light of Life and that He left us here on earth to be lights for the world

There are other traditions of significance woven into the use of the Christmas tree, but these are the ones I grew up with. To this day when I look at a Christmas tree, my mind runs through that little list and I am reminded of Christ's love and life in a sweet way. May you also be reminded of our Lord at every turn this Christmas!
